Voice on the Go[®] a "Road Warrior's Dream!"

Comprehensive professional review endorses Voice on the Go

TORONTO, Ont. - August 3, 2007 - Voice on the Go Inc., provider of mobile voice solutions, today announced the publication of a comprehensive professional review.

The review, by BlackberryCool.com, the first and fastest growing BlackBerry[®]-only online publication with more than 540,000 readers, said Voice on the Go '...offers hope for wearied travelers with their hands/eyes-free solution that gives users voice access to their email, calendars, and contacts while driving'. Other review highlights include:

- '...Voice on the Go's ability to understand user commands is a major asset.'
- ...Voice on the Go does a good job with the functionality it promotes, namely hands-free/eyes-free access to your email, calendar & contacts
- 'Those looking for a hands free content management solution to increase uptime while traveling will find what they need in Voice on the Go.'

"We're extremely pleased with the great review by BlackberryCool, a very influential site in the BlackBerry user community," said Simon Arnison, president and chief executive officer of Voice on the Go. "We are excited that Voice on the Go is being recognized as a safe and highly productive application for all BlackBerry[®] smartphone users."

Voice on the Go allows subscribers to use voice commands to gain hands-free and eyes-free access to their email, calendars, contacts and other content, from any BlackBerry[®] smartphone, safely while driving, or at any other time. Voice on the Go also allows people with visual impairments or physical disabilities to easily access their email.

About Voice on the Go

Voice on the Go provides mobile subscribers with access to email, contacts, calendar and other content by voice at any time, on any, BlackBerry[®] smartphone, or other PDA. It enables subscribers to listen to, compose, reply and forward their email all by voice - hands-free and eyes-free safely while driving, or any other time. The company is headquartered in Toronto, Canada and has an addressable market of more than two billion mobile subscribers worldwide. Voice on the Go also serves the physically disabled and visually impaired user community. Currently, 50 countries in the world have legislation that strictly prohibits usage of cell phones while driving unless usage is "hands-free". In the United States: New York, New Jersey, California, and Washington, DC have passed similar legislation while other states have bills pending.

Voice on the Go is available to consumer and enterprise customers, as well as telecommunications carriers and resellers worldwide in a number of languages including English, French, Dutch, Spanish, Italian, and German.
