

PRESS RELEASE

Voice on the Go[®] Wins Best Evolution Application and Rookie of the Year at 2007 Handango Champion Awards

TORONTO, Ont. – October 23, 2007 – Voice on the Go Inc., provider of mobile voice solutions, today announced that Voice on the Go[®] was awarded Best Evolution Application and Rookie of the Year. Nominated by Handango customers and judged by a selection of industry experts and members of the media, Voice on the Go was honored with the awards at the Handango Champion Awards special event during the Handango Seventh Annual Partner Summit.

Voice on the Go voice-enables email and other content allowing anyone to use their voice to gain hands-free and eyes-free access to their email, calendars, contacts and other content, from any cell phone, BlackBerry[®] smartphone, or other Personal Digital Assistant (PDA) – safely while driving, or at any other time. With Voice on the Go, subscribers can conveniently dial in and use their voice to listen to, compose, reply, and delete their email, access their calendar, search contacts by name or company and place calls. Voice on the Go is also a valuable tool for visually impaired and physically disabled individuals.

Voice on the Go will demonstrate the service in Booth #1048 at CTIA Wireless I.T. & Entertainment 2007, the largest and only wireless data event in the industry that covers all aspects of wireless for the business and consumer, taking place October 23 – 25th in San Francisco, CA.

"Mobile subscribers visit Handango for the latest innovative tools and applications to enhance their mobile experience," said Simon Arnison, president and chief executive officer of Voice on the Go. "People will always want to stay connected to their email, so our objective is to make it as safe, easy, and convenient as possible. With the growing focus on safety and legislation banning cell phones and prohibiting text messaging while driving, we are ecstatic that Handango customers have chosen Voice on the Go to safely and legally use their mobile device by voice in the car while driving - anytime, anywhere."

"Handango congratulates the winners of the 2007 Handango Champion awards! We could not maintain our current level of success without the hard work and creativity from partners such as Voice on the Go, which we honored with our exclusive Rookie of the Year award," said Monica Hamilton, Vice President of Content at Handango. "Their product, Voice on the Go, has been recognized as a favorite among customers and industry experts, and we are pleased to name it our Best Evolution Application.”

Voice on the Go is available through Handango for $5.99/month, and can be purchased at www.handango.com.

About Voice on the Go

Voice on the Go provides mobile subscribers with access to email, contacts, calendar and other content by voice at any time, on any cell phone, BlackBerry® smartphone, Apple® iPhone™ or other PDA. It enables subscribers to listen to, compose, reply and forward their email all by voice – hands-free and eyes-free safely while driving, or any other time. The company has global headquarters in Toronto, Canada and has an addressable market of more than two billion mobile subscribers worldwide¹. Voice on the Go is also a valuable tool for visually impaired and physically disabled individuals. Voice on the Go is available for use on any handset.

Currently, 50 countries in the world have legislation that strictly prohibits usage of cell phones while driving unless usage is “hands-free”. In the United States: California, Connecticut, New Jersey, New York, and Washington, DC have passed similar legislation while other states have partial bans and bills pending. In addition to banning cell phones while driving, legislation prohibiting text messaging while driving is now also being enacted with Washington leading the way as the first state to ban texting while driving.

Voice on the Go is available to consumer and enterprise customers, as well as telecommunications carriers and resellers worldwide in a number of languages including English, French, Dutch, Spanish, Italian, and German.

Voice on the Go is the 2007 winner of the Best Evolution Application and Rookie of the Year Handango Champion Awards.
